

THE EAST OF ENGLAND
FAITHS AGENCY
Data Protection Options
Impact of the extension of the Data Protection Regulations in 2018

Simply put, the Data Protection Regulations which come into force on 25th May 2018 mean that we cannot communicate with you unless you give us your specific consent to do so. You can give consent in one of two ways (please see below).

What is covered by these regulations?

The regulations cover any information that we might hold on you personally, name, address, email address, telephone number and any mails you have sent us - collectively the "Data". Please read "What may we do with the "Data" before completing the form.

What may we do with the "Data"?

Our use of the "Data" is confined to contacting those who have given their consent to be contacted to provide them with information about seminars, meetings, conferences and course in which they might be interested.. *It will never be shared with any third party.

If you give us consent, we shall contact you to send you details of our forthcoming events as well as other faith and inter-faith events around the region.

Consent may be revoked at any time

Please indicate your wishes in respect of the data that we will hold in one of two ways.

I give the East of England Faiths Agency "Consent" as defined above
